One primary purpose: The formation of a Detention Center A.A. group is based on cooperation and understanding between authorities and the A. A. people. The basis of the group's operation is the rules and regulations under which the facility will permit an A.A. group to function inside. It is equally important for everyone to have a clear understanding of what A. A. can and cannot do to help alcoholics—in correctional facilities—and after they are released. Inside the facility or out, an A. A. group has but one primary purpose – to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
